More than 20 years ago, CVG pioneered a movement to treat violence as a disease.

Today, that movement has empowered communities around the globe TO BE THE CURE. Join with us to celebrate the Violence Interrupters and Outreach Workers who put their own lives on the line to make our communities safer places to live, work and play.

Show your support for a more peaceful society by becoming a World Without Violence Gala Sponsor. Help us save lives! Details are below.

It's one of the first programs that we've had in the city that will work to get in front of the crime—as well as address some of the root causes of crime.

*Lewis Reed, President
St. Louis Board of Aldermen*

We saw Cure Violence was really making an impact in some of our most distressed communities.

*Dr. Marie Crandall
Trauma Surgeon
University of Florida*

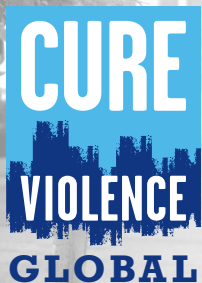

The Cure Violence program and the Crisis Management System has seen incredible success...completely transforming the way that we address gun violence.

*Jumaane Williams
NYC Public Advocate*

Fund Cure Violence and similar proven effective violence interruption models to stop violent incidents before they begin.

*Bernie Sanders
U.S. Senator*
